IN MEMORY OF
MR. A. A. COUNTISS

Not gone today as the world may see it,
Although his race it seems is done,
He's waiting just behind the curtain
To greet us when our race is done.

Our principal's gone, his chair is vacant,
We miss him as the days go by,
Our loss was great, he was greatly needed,
It's hard to know the reason why.

As days speed on in all their swiftness,
Give us the faith he had in God.
Help us to know the way is safest,
He knows the path that must be trod.

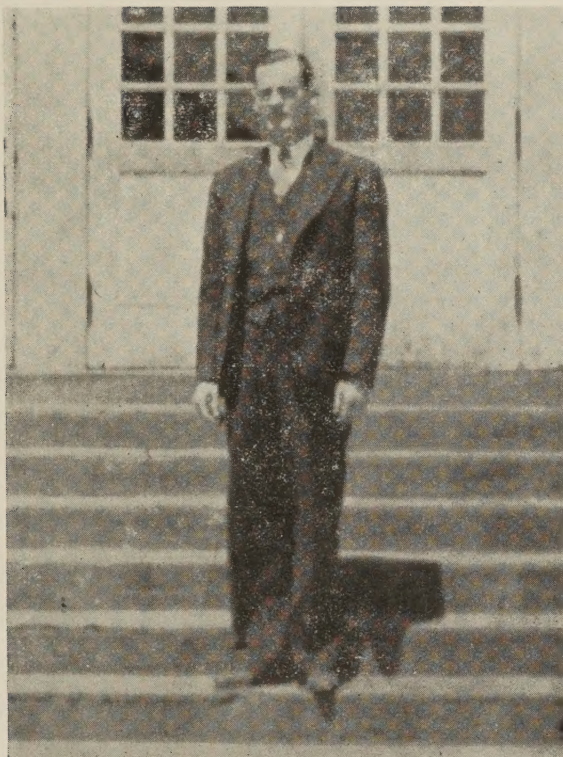

God safely called and he made answer
"I'm ready, take me as thine own,
And heaven's gates swing open wider
As angels guide him safely home.

May we live the life he taught us,
And when we reach the crystal sea,
May we say with the one who's gone before us,
"Jesus Savior, Pilot Me."

THE TORCH IS OURS.

Tune: Auld Lang Syne.

The torch is ours let's hold it high
For four long years we striven,
To gain the prize that now is ours
That this dear school has given.

Cho.

The torch is ours, let's hold it high,
The torch we now possess.
Let's carry it above all other things
For dear old H. H. S.

The halls rings our sweet echoes clear,
The things we can't forget.
They tell the happy days we spent
At dear old H. H. S.

Cho.

We've enjoyed the years we've spent
And all the teachers dear,
Who've guided us o'er the rocky paths,
Of all these by-gone years.

Cho.

The torch that we carry to-night
Shines still brighter on,
This place we loved all else above,
Will serve the ones that come.

By Jean Hart and Sue Davis.

"THE TORCH IS OURS"

To night our torch is shining
To light us on our way.
With dear old H. H. S. we cannot always stay.

To our faculty dear, we must say
good-bye,
And with our class-mates we must part with a sigh.
There are others, though, to take our place,
As we go on with the world to face.

With our torches so high,
They will shine for passers by,
It will light our life each day,
And help us on our future way.

We did strive this goal to win
And help us our lives to begin,
So let us keep striving through
All the hours
And keep on saying "The Torch
Is Ours."

—By Helen Pauline Starnes.

School Song

High school friends are truest.

So let us all together sing
Here's to H. H. S.

The best school in the land.
Her halls we love
All else above.

And we shall always be

Class Poem

(By BOBBIE BOYD.)

Georgia Akers is first on our list,
She taught all our girls that certain twist

Mary Ann McFarlane is small and bright,
We wonder if she studies all night.

Audrey Van Dyke is always so sweet,
But there is a saying "Still waters run deep."

Mable Jackson is sweet and kind,
A true sweetheart we're sure she'll find.

Louise Johnson is quiet and cool,
We hardly know that she's in school.

Florene Howard is a pretty brunette,
Most any man she could get.

When it comes to athletics Harold Faye leads the line,
But in his studies he's lagging behind.

Hush, Sue Davis, don't you cry,
You'll get a "holiday" by and by.

Helen Musick is short and fat,
With Glenn Vernon she loves to chat.

When it comes to pianos, Frances Loomis is good,
To be on the radio we think she could.

"Flatfoot" as Helen Boyd is commonly called,
You can't miss her feet when going through the hall.

Madge Counts is very good at art,
Someday she'll "draw" a man to her heart.

Erma Ball is Madges steady,
She's so small we call her fatty.

Earl Stump is such a dandy
'Cause with the girls he's always handy.

Here comes Robert Patrick with a grin,
It always extends from forehead to chin.

Pearl Ann Hale just loves to joke,
She makes us laugh until we choke.

Claude Honaker says he's a pretty good boy,
Because in school he makes no noise.

When Velvia Hess walks down the street,
She looks for Virgil whom she hopes to meet.

Jean Hart is the beauty of the school
But she has no respect for the golden rule.

Mildred Keffer, the class tomboy,
She may be little but she's no toy.

Bettye Musick is always wearing a grin,
Wonder what boy she's trying to win.

Lottie Jane Davis is cute and small,
Most people know she's kin to Paul.

Marie Dye would make a good teacher
But she'll probably end up by marrying a preacher.

Helen Starnes never beats around the bush
She gets what she wants all in one push.

Iris Perkins takes the name of a flower,
And that's the reason she never looks sour.

Faye Allan Meade is good in his studies,
But his favorite hobby is reading the funnies.

Glenn Vernon is next in line,
His equal would be hard to find.

Next, my friends, is Edsel Keene,
And he is sure to lead our team.

Leon Keene's profession is running the show,
Why he picked that is more than we know.

Cecil Miller is handsome and strong,
Major Bowes would probably give him the gong.

Bobbie Byrd is continually chewing her gum,
If she'd pass it around we'd all have some.

Glenn Hubbard is a lady's man,
But some old nagger he'll probably land.

Everett Quick is not so quick,
Why he's so slow he fails to tick.

Joe D. Fuller is small and cute,
But he'd be cuter if he played a flute.

Mildred Rasnick hums and haws,
When Mr. Moore on her calls.

June Sykes is quite a tease,
But she has to be serious for him to please.

Nellie Martin wants to be a writer,
Wouldn't it be funny if she married a fighter?

Ethel Jesse is still and quiet,
She's always considerate and very polite.

A beautician Ruby Sword wants to be,
Drop around some day, girls and she'll fix you up free.

Tommy Plaster is little and bright,
You seldom see him in a fight.

Eugene is another Plaster,
In his home he'll be the master.

In football Jack Helton is the best in town,
It takes ten men to hold him down.

Julius Belcher is always around,
Except when he's wanted, then he's always in town.

Willie Kate Combs is one of the blondes,
Of all the boys she's very fond.

See that trap Madeline Dye has set,
She's out to catch a "beaver" yet.

Here's Charles Buckland, tall and straight,
His ambition is to own a Ford V-8.

Our Faculty

Here comes Miss Settle, tall and slim,
Here's her secret of how she keeps trim,
She takes exercise every morn, noon and night,
But with us, of c urse, that's perfectly all right.

Miss Tate always looks so neat,
And I'll tell you her pies are certainly a treat.
So that's the reason we think she's sweet.

Miss Shelor is short and sweet,
To have her here is certainly a treat,
We love her more as days go by
'Cause classes with her just simply fly.

I guess we can take Miss Spahr next.
For in our books she's in every text,
But let me tell you one more fact,
You simply can't hold a girl like that

Who comes here, it can't be 'Fess,
Why, it's Miss Smith or I miss my guess.
In typing, shorthand, and such
We all appreciate her very much.

Mr. Bundy is good when it comes to bugs and mice,
But as for us we don't think it's nice,
As coach of our team he's done very well
And seldom has our team failed.

Who's this coming up the road?
Why it's Coach Harris whom you all know,
He's a jolly good fellow and full of fun,
He always sings when his work is done.

We wish Mr. Hawkins would wear suspenders. instead of a belt,
'Cause many times the pain we've felt,
But, nevertheless, he's a pretty good guy
Except when he lets that leather belt fly.

Mr. Worley is continually giving tests in History,
How he thinks up such questions to us is a mystery,
One quis a month is enough.
But Mr. Worley is quite tough.

Mr. Kinsey, who teaches the "N. Y. A.,"
Shows the boys how to rack hay,
If it was left up to these girls around,
He'd be the best looking guy in town.

Don't look now, but here comes the head man,
He comes in the room our faces to scan,
If everything is all right, he goes back out,
Leaving us alone and ready to shout
But Mr. Moore is a very good boss
If across our good conduct we don't try to cross.
He's here, there, and everywhere,
And all time catching us unaware.
But to make it brief, he's a pretty swell guy.
And I'm sure I don't have to tell you why.
